

In a state, where you may be lucky to get any radio station, it is important to hear weather and traffic for where you are driving to. There should be no restrictions to XM radio.

Fishing for some weak channel in denver, when you are 400 miles away from there for weather and traffic there is unsafe. The federal government has no right to limit the service offered by XM radio!